Friday Recap

Man in the Arena

It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, who comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who neither know victory nor defeat.

Discussed IDPH Updated Guidance...

- Contacts of a close contact generally do not need to quarantine with some limited exceptions.
- Clear masks may be worn in certain circumstances.
- Guidance on addressing naptime.

Elizabeth

24:05

Discussed transportation reimbursement...

- Emergency rules providing flexibility in reimbursement have expired and proposed rules have not yet been adopted.
- Operate under the assumption that emergency rules that were in place last spring may not be in place in the future, but keep an eye out for proposed rules to go into effect.

Discussed addressing sexual harassment & abuse requirements ...

- Districts must provide Title IX and non-Title IX sexual harassment prevention training.
- Don't forget about mandated training.
- All students in pre-K through 12 grade must receive sexual abuse prevention education regardless of the instructional delivery model.
- There are many resources available to assist with these required trainings.
